BELT LINE WANTED TO POTOMAC PARK

The Washington Railway and Electric Company today petitioned the Public Utilities Commission for permission to build a double line of street car tracks on Seventeenth street northwest between H street and Pennsylvania avenue to connect the street cars running to and from Mt. Pleasant and Georgetown with the lines of the Capitol Traction Company to run to Potomac Park.

The Public Utilities Commission today set Tuesday, November 19, at 10:30, for the time for a public hearing on the petition.

The estimated cost of this project is $120,000. The United States Housing Corporation has agreed to advance this money until the Washington Railway and Electric Company can float a bond issue for the sum.

Officials of the Washington Railway and Electric Company are making efforts to speed the work of construction on this new double line of tracks. This marks the first step in the construction of the new 'Belt Line'.

BERGER, SOCIALIST, BEATS STAFFORD

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 6.—Former Congressman Victor L. Berger, Socialist, has been elected to the Congress from the Fifth Wisconsin district, by a plurality of approximately 5,000 votes.

Berger defeated Congressman Stafford, Republican, and J. P. Carney, Socialist, who ran on a charge of violating the espionage act. He opposed America's entrance into the war.

Two Woman Candidates Who Were Defeated

Below is Miss Jeannette Rankin, member of Congress from Montana, who ran for United States Senator on an independent ticket after having failed to receive the Republican nomination, and who was defeated in a three-cornered fight.

On the left is Miss Anne Martin, well-known suffragist, who sought the Senatorial toga from Nevada on an independent ticket and a platform whose heaviest plank was the suffrage issue, and who was defeated yesterday.

DEMOCRAT CHOSEN IN MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—For the first time since the days before the civil war, Massachusetts has elected a Democratic United States Senator. Practically complete returns today showed that former Gov. David I. Walsh was chosen in yesterday's elections over United States Senator John W. Weeks. Walsh's plurality was about 17,823 votes. Weeks had served one term and sought re-election.

In New Hampshire, George H. Moses, Republican, former minister to Greece, was elected to the United States Senate for a two-year term to succeed the late Senator Jacob A. Gallinger. Gov. Henry W. Kays, Republican, was elected for the six-year term to the United States Senate over former Congressman Eugene E. Reed, Democrat. He will replace United States Senator Henry F. Hollis. The vote was: Kays, 27,005; Reed, 21,950. United States Senator Le Baron Colt, Republican, was re-elected in Rhode Island. He defeated Congressman George F. O'Shaughnessy by 4,051 votes.

Calvin Coolidge, Republican, for whom favors local option, was elected governor of Massachusetts.

Percival W. Clement, Republican, who favors local option, was elected governor of Vermont.

In the Congressional battles in New England the feature was in the Tenth district of Massachusetts, where former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald defeated Congressman Peter F. Tague, who ran on stickers. Both are Democrats. The latter is expected to carry the contest to Congress itself.

REPUBLICAN GAIN.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Republicans have apparently added another Congressman to the New York delegation, returns indicating that Dr. Frank Crowther, Schenectady, has defeated Dr. George R. Lunn, Democrat.
